Revised April 2017

*** IMPORTANT NOTICE *****

This directory has been compiled from names provided to the Department of Environmental Quality (NDEQ) by interested firms. The directory is for informational purposes only. We strongly recommend calling in advance to assure that the firm can and will handle your particular hazardous waste or particular situation.

NDEQ makes no representations whatsoever regarding the character or quality of the firms listed nor does it endorse or recommend the hazardous waste services provided. Generators and other businesses using this list are solely responsible for determining the adequacy of the hazardous waste services and should ensure that any company or product they use complies with all applicable environmental laws.

This directory is by no means all-inclusive. To make changes or additions to this directory, please contact:
